old HVAC units avoided

Aveanna needed to shed 5,000 SF of its 15,000 SF clinic, including a therapy pool, while facing aging HVAC and a proposed rent increase. Touring alternatives created leverage, but the best answer was a turnkey relocation with all-new HVAC and $500K in rent savings.

Our Only Bias is You.

As the world's largest occupier-focused commercial real estate advisory firm, Cresa sits on one side of the table: yours. We have no listings to fill and no landlord relationships to protect, so we're free to negotiate as hard as your deal requires.

Full-service commercial real estate firms generate a large majority of their revenue from their relationships with landlords. That arrangement is not in the tenant's best interests. At Cresa, we don't think that's right. That's why we're squarely in your corner and never represent landlords or developers.

Why It Matters to You

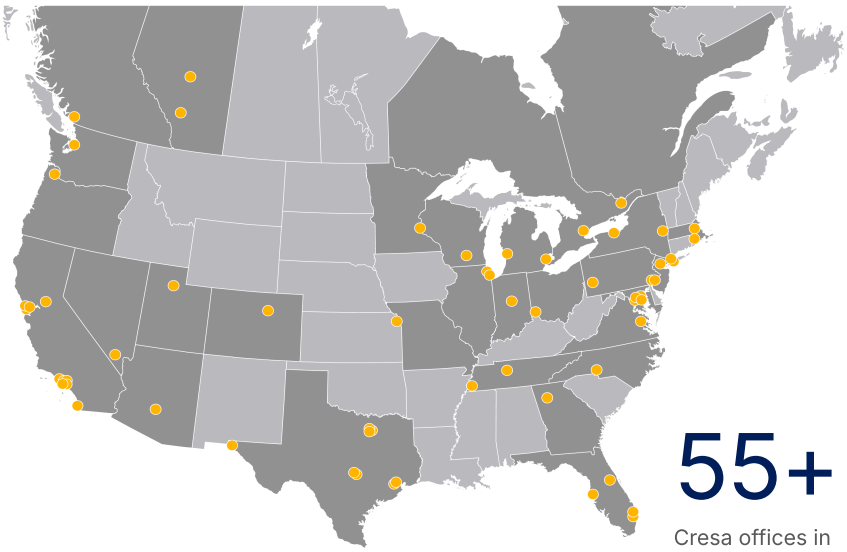

01
No obligations to landlords

02
Freedom to negotiate more aggressively

03
A platform solely dedicated to occupiers

04
Unbiased, objective client representation

05
Consistent cost savings for our clients

We think beyond space.

By aligning real estate decisions with business needs, Cresa helps you discover unseen opportunities, reduce risk, improve outcomes and secure a competitive edge for your people and your organization, anywhere around the globe.

Each of our services is fully scalable, so your team can move quickly as your needs evolve, regardless of location. By integrating every service line through a single point of contact, we connect the dots so you don't have to, and you can focus on what matters most: your patients and your organization.
